

BacLinks Spotlight on

WINTER
2008 workplace big day out

- 250+ people participated in this event
- 32+ local businesses and organisations were involved, plus numerous support staff and volunteers

Special thanks go to all the sponsors, participants and supporters:

Alcoa; Barefoot Media; Bendigo Bank; Black Dog Promotions; Bunnings (Waurm Ponds); Corio Leisuretime Centre; Coulter Roache; Eagle Creative; Encompass; Football Federation Victoria; Geelong Badminton Association; Geelong Bowling Lanes; Geelong Business News; G-Force Recruitment; Go A Coffee; Gordon Institute of TAFE Staff & Students; Karingal Staff, KABLE and Karingal Volunteers; Kommerical; MatchWorks; McDonalds (Waurm Ponds); Narana Creations; Peaches Fruit Market; Powercor; Quiksilver Torquay & Warehouse; Rotary Highton; Safeway (Newcomb); Shell Refining; St Laurence; Sweeney Todd Waste Disposal; Target; Tip Top Bakeries; United Way; Victorian Kyokushin Karate Association (Shihan-Cho Gary Viccars Branch); Vista Video; WHK - and all of the many individual volunteers and agency staff

- 100% of respondents want to do it all again
- 100% would recommend participation in the WBDO to their colleagues
- 82% would participate in other projects organised through BacLinks and their workplace

Proudly sponsored by:

And supported by

Narana Creations

The Workplace Big Day Out is just the beginning

Business involvement in the community can significantly benefit both the businesses involved and the community in which they operate.

BacLinks are the experts in connecting businesses to community projects that meet individual business interests and capacity. BacLinks can save your business time and money, and ensure your community investment dollar is effectively spent.

Ask about membership with BacLinks on 5249 8989 or visit our website www.baclinks.org.au

Get ready for the 2008 Summer WBDO
Tuesday 18 November
Adventure Park, Wallington